

windlas

ONCOTELIC

Virtual Webinar

Ayurveda, Artemisia, and Covid-19

December 16, 2020 7AM PST — 10AM EST— 8:30PM IST

Featuring Global Experts in Ayurveda and Pharmacology

Please Register HERE

Panel discussion and Q&A to follow with Presenters and Professor Balram Singh, Dr. Suhas Kshirsagar, Dr. Shekhar Annambhotla, Dr. Vuong Trieu

Dr. Geetha Krishnan, MD (Ayurveda), BAMS

AYUSH representative at the World Health Organization in Geneva. Dr. Krishnan is responsible for WHO's inclusion of AYUSH systems in Global Health Care and their appropriate use in WHO's member states.

"Ayurvedic Management for Covid-19"—A WHO Perspective

Dr. Renu Dixit, MD (Ayurveda) PhD, BAMS

Associate Professor, Dept. of Dravyaguna, S.V. Ayurvedic College Ayurvedic Expert-TKDL—Ministry of Health & family Welfare Scientific Office at AYUSH, AP

"Ayurvedic Perspective on Artemisia"

Professor Maurice Iwu, PhD

Executive Director, Bioresources Development and Conservation Programme

"Artemisinin, Malaria and Covid-19"

Dr. Wanjun Chen, MD

Senior Investigator, U.S. National Institute of Health NIDCR

"The role of TGF-beta in Covid-19"

Saran Saund

CBO Oncotelic Therapeutics

"The Data & Science of ArtiVeda"

Hitesh Windlas

Founder and Managing Director, Windlas Biotech Pvt Ltd

"Artemisinin Extraction: Quality, Purity, and Safety"